
Price it Right . . . at the Start!

The prime marketing time occurs during the first few weeks the home is placed on the market.

Buyer Weekly Enquiries

As the chart above clearly shows, the greatest interest in your home will be within the first four weeks from the date it is listed.

After that time, the likelihood of you acquiring your asking price will dramatically lessen as viewing interest declines.